

TrynEx® International, LLC Named 2019 Top Workplace by Detroit Free Press

MADISON HEIGHTS (Nov. 10, 2019) – TrynEx® International, LLC, a division of Douglas Dynamics, LLC, has been awarded a 2019 Top Workplaces honor by the Detroit Free Press for the third year in a row.

Companies placed on the Top Workplaces list are chosen based solely on an employee feedback survey administered by Energage, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including alignment, execution and connection.

“As a company, we pride ourselves on being a place where employees genuinely enjoy coming to work each day,” said Linda Evans, vice president of human resources at Douglas Dynamics, LLC. “Our employees know from our values of accountability, excellence, innovation, leadership and collaboration that this is somewhere they can not only grow in their career but also thrive. Moving into 2020, our leadership team will continue to foster a culture that brings in quality talent and quality people.”

Headquartered in Madison Heights, MI, TrynEx is a manufacturer of equipment products, providing cutting-edge solutions for the snow and ice control, lawn and turf care, and commercial maintenance industries with its SnowEx®, TurfEx® and SweepEx® brands.

Based in Milwaukee, Douglas Dynamics is North America’s premier manufacturer and up-fitter of commercial work truck attachments and equipment. As one of only a handful of organizations to make the list of Top Workplaces in Michigan, Douglas Dynamics maintains one of the lowest turnover rates in the industry, an accomplishment the company attributes to employee empowerment and ongoing skill development initiatives. The company employs over 1,700 employees worldwide in six manufacturing facilities, fourteen installation and distribution centers, and an international sourcing and business development office.
